

Daneel Van Der Walt

Daneel has an honours degree in Theatre and Performance from UCT. She has worked in the theatre industry for 10 years and has been in various plays and musicals, including Big Girl and having played Magenta in The Fugard's production of The Rocky Horror Show. Not only an actor but a versatile singer, Jazz and blues being her favourite genres, she has recently branched out into the commercial industry. In the past year Daneel has worked as a dubbing artist for various international series and is currently working on a new series for an Afrikaans channel, VIA. This busy young lady also presents a show called COZA, which focuses on South Africans in the diaspora

Image: Tongue Twisters