

Sarah Richard

Sarah is an experienced voice artist, actress and singer, working professionally on stage, screen and radio for over 10 years. Friendly, timely, and amenable to the client's needs, she has established herself as a force to be reckoned with inside the South African voice community. Sarah has a versatile voice and is proficient in many accents and character voices as well as possessing a neutral, engaging quality perfect for numerous vocal demands. Sarah's voice is upbeat, friendly and conversational whilst still being professional. She can also add a smooth, sexy, darker tone to her voice and can play any age from 5 to 50. Sarah is based in Johannesburg but has a professional home set up and has recorded remotely for numerous clients.

Image: Tongue Twisters