

Daniel Richards

Daniel Mpilo Richards is an actor, writer, dancer, singer and musician. Co-Writer and performer of Die Glas Ennie Draad alongside Gantane Kusch, which recently won a Standard Bank Silver Ovation Award at the 2016 NAF. He has performed in festivals in Grahamstown, Zimbabwe, the Czech Republic and the USA. Recently he was in Mike Van Graan's Pay Back The Curry, directed by Rob Van Vuuren. Other highlights include: Lodovico in Shakespeare's Othello; Chino in the Fugard's production of West Side Story. Daniel returned from the USA in Oct 2015 having performed in two shows at the Tennessee Williams Theatre Festival in Provincetown: Day On Which A Man Dies & MilkTrain. He has a flair for vocal impersonations, and a great vocal range.

Image: Tongue Twisters