

Dean Friederich

Dean is a born & raised Capetonian who has been working as a radio presenter in both community and commercial radio since the age of 19 while completing his studies in Professional Acting for Camera & Theatre/Voice Acting at CityVarsity. During his studies, he received professional training and accreditation in voice acting and vocal graphics. He therefore understands the importance of a clear, convincing and direct delivery while maintaining an approachable, friendly and warm undertone to his voice and not forgetting to have fun wherever possible in the process!

Image: Tongue Twisters