

Ongama Mafanuka

Ongama is a young talent who takes his work very seriously. He is a well-trained artist after completing a local voice-over, course and being mentored by a successful artist in the industry. He also volunteered at local tertiary institutions to help students with audio assignments while at the same time honing his skills behind the mic. He's worked with companies such as Primedia and KP Reach to name a few which are noteworthy for a young artist.
